Customer Focused Culture

Building and sustaining a truly customer-focused culture is the foundation of delivering awesome results – day after day, order after order – one customer at a time. We integrate three core cultural principles: Partnership, Stewardship, and Ownership. Each plays a vital, complementary role in striving for awesome results for our customer.

Partnership

We work hard to understand our customer's needs and develop strong relationships that in turn help us provide innovative, tailored, effective solutions.

Stewardship

We treat every product and order as our own. Our employees are passionate about the job they do and we hold each other to the highest standards.

Ownership

Our Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) instills employee pride and commitment servicing customers responsibly and reliably, day after day.
